Bath Township Platoon Chief Achieves Designation

Bath Township Fire Department Platoon Chief, Crystal M. Plumpe has been designated as an "Ohio Fire Officer" by the Ohio Fire Chiefs' Association.

This designation by the OFCA seeks to recognize fire officers in Ohio who have met a rigorous and thorough evaluation by an independent panel of Fire Chiefs. Formal education, training, certifications, professional development, along with years of experience and other career achievements are all evaluated and scored from a submitted application by the candidate.

Chief Joseph Kitchen stated, "Our entire department is very proud of Crystal. She has dedicated herself to being a leader in her field and this designation certifies her commitment to our department and our community."
