Area Firefighters Conduct Training

The Bath Twp. Fire Department will be conducting training today with firefighters from across the region. The training will focus on Engine Operations, Hose Line Deployment, and Water Management.

The class will be instructed by Lt. Steve Robertson from the Columbus division of Fire. Lt. Robertson has been in the fire service for 30 years spending the last 26 years with the Columbus Ohio Division of Fire. He is a state certified Fire Safety instructor as well as a member of the USAR Central Ohio Strike Team. In addition, Steve is a member of The State of Ohio Fire Training Committee. He is also an instructor at FDIC and has taught Engine company tactics nationally. Steve currently serves as the Lieutenant on Engine 18 in South Linden area of Columbus.

The lecture portion will be held at the Bath Twp. Fire Department from 8:30 to 1:30 and the hands on portion will take place at an Allen County property located at 3125 Ada Road in Bath Township. The media is welcome to come to the Ada Road location any time after 1:30 P.M.
